Class	Length of Session	Description
Adult Knots and Training	1 hour	Did you ever wonder how leaders can earn those colorful knots they often see on other leaders' uniform shirts? This is the course that will take a look at the various knots and their requirements. This course will also introduce you to various other training oppotunities for adult leaders.
BALOO	8 hours	Basic Adult Leader Outdoor Orientation. This is a Cub Scout Leader course to discuss camping and BSA policies regarding Pack camping. Every unit must have one individual that has taken this course when camping with the Pack. There is a limit of 15 persons to this class.
Boy Scout Advancement	1 hour	Scout to Life. What are the requirements? This course will be a broad look at the Boy Scout advancement requirements and points to facilitate this prgression. It will also address resources that can be used.
Boy Scout Extras	1 hour	Beyond rank advancement and Merit Badges, there is anotuerh world of activities for Boy Scouts that result in various patches, pints and lots of fun. Take a look at the Hornaday Award, the new Nova Program and the various other awards Boy Scouts can earn.
Camp Health & Safety Officer	1 hour	This presentation provides a detailed briefing for individuals selected to serve as a camp health officer at a council or district camping facility.
CPR/First Aid	8 hours	American Red Cross Fbasic First Aid and CPR. These are prerequisites to Wilderness First Aid. There is a limit to the number in the class of 25.
Cub Scout Advancement	1 hour	Bobcat to Webelos. What are the requirements? This course will be a broad look at the Cub Scout advancement requirements and ponts to facilitate this progression. IT will also address resources that can be used.
Cub Scout Extras	1 hour	Beyond rant advancement and Arrow Points, there is another world of activities for Cub Scouts that result in various patches, pins, and lots of fun. Take a look at the Sports and Academics awards, the new Nova Program and the various other awards Cub Scouts can earn.
Cub Scout Games	1 hour	Learn how to add games to your Cub Scout program. Have fun and play games. Learn new games.
Cubmaster Leader Specfic Training	2 hour	This training is required for all Cubmasters to be considered trained.
Den Leader Specific Training	2 hour	This training is required for all Den Leaders to be considered trained.

DenChief Training	4 hours	This is a course to teach those Boy Scouts who will be serving as Den Chiefs in Cub Scout Dens.
Dutch Oven Cooking	2 hours	Learn the basics and secrets for outdoor cooking with Dutch Ovens. This 2 hour session
Geocaching	1 hour	One of the newer programs to Scouting. Learn how to use Geocaching in the Scouting program and how to help the boys have fun.
How to Run Boards of Review	1 hour	If you are responsible for or participate in Boards of Review, this is the course for you.
Leatherwork	2 horus	Learn the basics on working with leather and how to teach either Cub Scouts or Boy Scouts how to use leather.
Leave No Trace TTT	2 hour	Learn how to use Leave No Trace in your program from Cub Scouts, through Boy Scouts and in Venturing Scouting.
Maintain Discipline with Cub Scouts	1 hour	Constructive discipline ideas for Cub Scouts.
Merit Badge Counselor	1 hour	This is the BSA national syllabus for Merit Badge Counselors. For anyone registered as a Merit Badge Conselor to be considered trained, they must take this course.
Order of the Arrow - Overview	1 hour	Do you need to know what the Order of the Arrow is all about and how it fits into your program? This is an overview for any level of Scouter who wants to know something about this service program for Boy Scouts.
Outdoors with Cub Scouts	1 hour	The outdoors is an important part of the Cub Scouting program. This course will look at the many ways you can keep the Outing in Scouting.
Preparing for High Advanture Trek	1 hour	If you are going on a High Adventure Trek anytime in the future, this course would be a good place to start. There is a lot to know to in terms of getting in shape and getting prepared for this activity. Check this course out.
Range Master	3 hours	Anyone working with the ranges at a Cub Scout event needs this 3 hour training to be a certified Range Master.
Religious & Service Awards	1 hour	Religious and service awards are some of the many awards that are available to youth and adults. What are they? What are the requirements? How can you incorporate them into your program?
Risk Zone	1 hour	Don't get caught in the Risk Zone! Focus your attention on driving. This course will educate the participants on ways to prevent distractions and fatigue while driving. There is additional material on SUVs and vans, traveling with trailers, and insurance information.

Scaling the Peak Life to Eagle	1 hour	The final step for a young man to reach Eagle is a large one. In addition there has been a change in the paperwork that is required for the project. This is a good course for all adults leaders in a Troop to help the young man reach this life altering achievement.
Scouting Safely	1 hour	This course is designed to answer questions like what kind of training is required to take a Cub Scout Pack or Den to the beach: can Boy Scouts shoot pistols; what kind of water activities can Boy Scouts participate in?
Scoutmaster Conferences	1 hour	This course will teach Scoutmasters, assistant Scoutmasters, and other troop leaders about the purposes of the Scoutmaster's conference and will offer suggestions for questions that could be asked at these conferences.
Teach Camping on a Budget to BS	1 hour	The ninth point of the Scout Law is Thrifty. One of the areas that we often miss in teaching Boy Scouts to be thrifty is in menu planning for Troop campouts. This course will discuss several ways to approach this in teaching the youth and practicing it as adults.
Webelos to Scout Transition	1 hour	Learn the keys to insuring that your Webelo Scouts move to Boy Scouts and succeed in the Troops.
Youth Protection	1 hour	This the the state of Texas required Face-to-Face training. If you are going to be attending any long term youth camp in Texas this is a required course. It is good for 2 years.
Youth Protection TTT	1 hour	This is to train individuals in how to conduct the Face-To-Face Youth Protection training that is required by the state of Texas. Prior approval required to take this course.